Awesome Family trekking in the Annapurna Mountain, Nepal

We've just completed a 4 day trek in the Himalayas with our 4 children age 4,6,9 and 10. With the help of our very experienced guide and 3 porters, 2 to help carry the little ones, we had the most marvellous experience. A little bit challenging, but not to much... Manageable distances for the children, excellent organization, loads of playful interactions with our crew and locals.... What more do u want! With stunning views of Fishtail and the Annapurna range, we are all excited for our next trip to the Himalayas. Our 9-year old son even said, he'll come to Everest base camp with me when he is 16!!!! Better start saving now!!! We got great value for money, great budget mountain hotels(with wifi... If u need to get in touch with outside world) great mountain food... And on request of the kids a HUGE bonfire!! Owner Rajan has got excellent customer feedback and support with all communication answered sharply and to the point. Excellent english spoken by our guide, Shree, and porter!! Well done Earthbound. I'll totally recommend this company for a safe and stress free mountain experience!!
